Large Crowd Will Go to Richmond From Here Today.

RESOLUTIONS BY VETERANS

Magruder Camp and Fourth Army Corps Men Pay Last Tribute to Distinguished Soldier Who Was Their Comrade and Friend.

The first Ivy avenue boat this morning will be boarded by the local military companies, on their way to Norfolk to join the Seventy-first regiment. From Norfolk the regiment will be transported to Richmond over the Norfolk & Western road free of charge.

The regiment will participate in the imposing ceremonies incident to the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee. The funeral takes place at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Huntington Rifles and Newport News Light Infantry will return home tonight over the Chesapeake & Ohio, the road having offered them transportation.

Magruder Camp, Confederate Veterans, and a large number of Spanish-American veterans and other citizens of the city will go to Richmond to attend the funeral. The Chesapeake & Ohio offers special rates; one fare for the round trip to the public and $1.50 for the round trip for bands and military in uniform.

Resolutions Adopted.

Following are the resolutions upon the death of General Lee, adopted by the Confederate Veterans, and Veterans of the Spanish-American war:

"May 1st, 1905.

"Resolutions adopted by Magruder Camp, No. 1205, U. C. V.:

"Whereas, the Almighty in His wisdom has closed the brilliant career of our distinguished comrade, General Fitzhugh Lee, be it

"Resolved: 1st: That we desire to place on record our testimonial to him as a man without fear, favor or favoritism; as a friend loyal, generous, loving and unflinching; as a citizen, the idol not only of his State and the South, but of the entire American people; as a soldier, one of the fearless, daring and efficient of the cavalry leaders of the Confederate army.

"2nd: That we tender to his bereaved family our sincere sympathy in this their and our common sorrow.

"J. A. BIXTON,

"G. W. NELMS,

"H. H. EPES,

"Committee."

"We, the Spanish-American war, Seventh Army Corps men, of Newport News, Virginia, in meeting assembled, out of our love, honor and respect for our former commander, the great Fitzhugh Lee, by this feeble means desire to bear witness before all mankind of the great example he has set, as a soldier, statesman, diplomat, citizen, and friend, aye, and courtly gentleman—worthy of emulation.

"Through this world of vanity, vexation and deceit, he rode like the Chevalier Baird, without fear and without reproach, loved and esteemed by all men, because as a knightly gentleman he loved his fellow men, and never counted the value of his own life in the service of his people.

"A great patriot has passed through the portals that divide us from the land of eternal rest, and while he was about his country's business, who doubts that the Master of Worlds and Men has said to him, 'Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the glory of the Lord?' And who so selfish as would call him back?"

"W. H. SAUNDERS,

"S. S. ARCHIBALD,

"C. C. BERKELEY,

"Committee."

SERGEANT JONES ELECTED

NEW SECOND LIEUTENANT FOR THE HUNTINGTON RIFLES.

Two Candidates Withdrew From the Race and Jones Received Unanimous Vote—Regular Drill.

Sergeant John Jones was elected second lieutenant of the Huntington Rifles last night.

There were two other contestants for the office and when the first ballot of the members of the company was taken the vote stood: Jones 26; Charles Moss, 12; W. B. Richardson, 4. The others then withdrew, and Sergeant Jones was unanimously elected.

Last night was the regular drill night of the Huntington Rifles and when the company formed in the armory hall there were forty-two men present besides the commissioned officers.

The members of the Rifles were put through their regular weekly drill before the election and after that contest First Lieutenant Moore read the orders from Col. Higgins, commander of the Seventy-fifth regiment, ordering the local companies to Richmond. When the orders had been read a canvas of the company was made in order to determine how many men were going to Richmond today to attend the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee, and thirty men signified their intention of going.

BLAND OUT OF RACE

Legislature Fight Assumes a New Aspect.

WHO WILL GET THE BENEFIT?

Five Candidates Would Like to Know

How Mr. Bland's Following Will

Vote—Effort in East End to Bring

Out R. C. Petzold.

The race for the Democratic nomination for the legislature assumed a new aspect yesterday, when Mr. S. Otis Bland announced that he had decided to withdraw from the race.

Mr. Bland had been regarded as one of the most formidable of the six candidates in the field and his withdrawal makes a very decided change in the situation. The question is who will the Bland following support, and the other candidates will have an interesting time trying to solve the problem.

Messrs. A. A. Moss, W. E. Barret, Floyd Huggins, G. W. Black and R. M. Hudson all declare that they are in the field to stay, and it seems that the vote is to be badly split up.

Mr. Bland states that it will be impossible for him to make the race, as he will not have the time to devote to the campaign.

An effort is being made by citizens of the East End to bring out Mr. R. C. Petzold as a candidate. Mr. Petzold has not given an answer, but many of his friends believe that they can induce him to enter the race.

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 3.—Fishing vessels arriving today report that the fishing schooner Florida was lost in a hurricane near Campeche Banks about ten days ago and that the entire crew, consisting of six men went down with the vessel. The schooner was owned by E. E. Saunders & Co. of this city and sailed out with a number of other vessels on the morning of April 5 bound for the Snapper Banks. She had about concluded her fishing when a hurricane came on about 10 o'clock at night.

There were twelve or more vessels of a similar character anchored in the Campeche vicinity and each parted its cable and went adrift. Some of the fishermen of other vessels saw a big sea strike the Florida. Her lights swayed to one side and then she went down.

MOXIE

"All housekeepers will agree with me that it pays to take a minute several times a day for a glass of Moxie.

"I know of nothing that lessens the fatigue of housework like a drink of this delicious temperance beverage.

"It invigorates you as nothing else will.

"My doctor says the reason for this is that Moxie is a genuine nerve food and it is good for me because it contains no alcohol, narcotics, poisonous drugs or chemical preservatives.

"I simply love Moxie and I know that it makes my work about the house almost like play."
